Personal Invitation: Opening of the Exhibit dedicated to the Works of Artist Alois Carigiet

The Waldhaus Flims Mountain Resort & Spa's range of attractions has just been extended, as it is set to include, from mid-March, the incomparable works of gifted Swiss painter and illustrator Alois Carigiet. The exhibit's opening is scheduled for Friday, March 12, 2010, 5 p.m.

The works of Alois Carigiet (1902–1985), who spent some of the most fruitful years of his artistic career in his native region, the Bündner Oberland, basically needs no special introduction. His oeuvre is firmly anchored in our country's collective consciousness. Which is not surprising, because his works contain typical themes and scenes showing us the daily lives of ourselves, while at the same time giving shape to our desires and longings.

The permanent exhibit at the Waldhaus Flims, from mid-March 2010, shows a selection of twenty original works from several of Alois Carigiet's creative periods, all part of La Collection du Dr. Marcel Bahro. Since the hotel resort has a long tradition of acting as host to important art collections and foundations, it was not by coincidence that the Waldhaus Flims was chosen for this exhibit. The collector and the hotel have joined forces, infused by a shared conviction: important works of art are not exclusively a private matter; rather, they are, in terms of cultural history, most definitely objects of public interest.

Program: Opening Ceremony of the Permanent Carigiet Exhibit at the Waldhaus Flims

5:00 p.m.	Arrival of guests at the Waldhaus Flims Grand Hotel Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres
5:30 p.m.	Welcoming address by Christoph Schlosser, Managing Director/CEO, Waldhaus Flims, followed by a speech on the exhibit's opening by Dr. Bernard Fibicher, Directeur, Musée cantonal des Beaux-Arts, Lausanne
