Waldhaus Flims: Chocolate Special

Good news for all chocoholics: from May 2010, the delight spa & beauty of the Waldhaus Flims 5-star hotel resort will offer an exclusive chocolate treatment with „COCOA Jewel of the Amazonas“.

Chocolate as a beautifier

Chocolate smoothes away wrinkles, acts as a moisturizer, and protects against skin aging. An extra portion of calcium, iron and polyphenols stimulates the skin blood flow and smoothes rough surfaces. The new Waldhaus Flims „COCOA Jewel of the Amazonas“ spa treatment is a sensuous feel-good ritual with chocolate activating the body's own stimulants. The exquisite chocolate fragrance triggering the release of serotonin and endorphins provides complete relaxation. The full or partial body pack includes a cleansing and caring Lactissimo milk bath with milk proteins, a stimulating peeling, a massage with natural macadamia oil, and a body pack with a concluding aromatic moisturizing care treatment. 80 min. / CHF 190.-
